

Bridal Veil

( Helmut Huber )

Today you take the hardest decision
You've ever had
One word changes your life and
I hope you will be happy ,n' glad
Your mother is sobbing in her handkerchief
Your daddy tries to be strong
You're standing beside the man, with whom
You wanna live together - Oh you waited so long

But how much time had to pass and
How much you longed for this moment to come
Now you're so happy over and over
Remembering how it all begun
And there is an insatiable fire
Burning deep down in your heart
But do you think, that your love can last forever ?
Till death do you part

A bridal veil hides your eyes
You are weeping, but noone sees your tears
A bridal veil hides your thoughts
You are trembling and noone sees your fears

You'll say yes - Oh there's no doubt
You've never been so happy and so glad
You love him so endlessly cause he's the Dearest man, you've ever met
And there is an insatiable fire
Burning deep down in your heart
And you hope, that your love will last forever
Till death do you part

A bridal veil hides your eyes
You are weeping, but noone sees your tears
A bridal veil hides your thoughts
You are trembling and noone sees your fears
