

I Want To Hold You

(Helmut Huber)

What can I do to make you see
What I'm feeling for you
I don't know how
I can let my dreams become true

You are the girl that I want
The one who should live by my side
But how should you know
What I'm feeling so deep inside

I want to hold you tight
You are the so only
I wanna make you feel alright
And you should never feel lonely
I want to hold you tight
You are the so only
I wanna make you feel alright
And you should never feel lonely

There are so many pretty girls
Nice women who are lovely too
But actually I know for sure
I'm only longing for you

I want to hold you tight
You are the so only
I wanna make you feel alright
And you should never feel lonely
I want to hold you tight
You are the so only
I wanna make you feel alright
And you should never feel lonely
